

You may need to renew your Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN)

Your ITIN (Individual Taxpayer Identification Number) won't be any good after January 1, 2019 IF:

- Your ITIN has 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, or 82 as the two middle numbers. (Example: 900-78-0000) OR
- You did not use your ITIN on a 2016, 2017 or 2018 tax return.

You DON'T need to get a new ITIN IF:

- The two middle numbers on your ITIN are NOT 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, or 82.
- You used your ITIN to file a 2016, 2017 or 2018 tax return. AND you did not get an IRS CP48 Notice.
- You now have a Social Security Number (SSN).
- You are not filing a tax return or asking for a refund.

Are you the only one in your family who needs a new ITIN?

If only one person needs a new ITIN, the whole family can get new ITINs. This is true even if their ITINs are still good.

Did you get an IRS renewal letter? Then you can choose to renew ITINs together.

Important! Does your husband, wife, children or dependents live outside of the U.S.? Then you may not need to renew their ITINs. Talk with a tax advisor or call us at 1-866-481-3669. It's a free call.

What if you need a new ITIN but file a tax return before you get one?

The IRS will show you filed on time. BUT until you get a new ITIN:

- Your exemptions and/or credits won't count AND
- You won't get any refunds

If your exemptions and credits don't count, you may owe taxes. The IRS can add interest and penalties to what you owe.

How do you get a new ITIN?

Go to www.irs.gov/W7 on the internet. Get Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number. Fill out one for each person.

- The W-7 tells you what ID papers you must send in with it. ID papers are things like passports or other papers that prove who you are.

- Mail the W-7 and ID papers to:

Internal Revenue Service
ITIN Operation
P.O. Box 149342
Austin, TX 78714-9342

Can you send copies of your ID papers with your W-7? No. You can only send originals or certified copies.

What if you don't want to mail your original ID papers to the IRS? Then go to an IRS Taxpayer Assistance Center (TAC). OR find an IRS Certified Acceptance Agent (CAA) near you:

- Look in your local phone book for the closest CAA OR
- Go to www.irs.gov/individuals/acceptance-agent-program on the internet

Are you getting an ITIN for a dependent? Then their original or certified ID papers must be sent to the IRS.

Can a passport be used for ID by itself? No. There are new rules:

- Is the dependent from a country other than Canada or Mexico? OR is the person a dependent of a military member overseas? Then:
 - The passport must show an entry date into the US AND
 - Dependents ages 5 and under must have a passport and US medical records
 - Dependents ages 6 to 17 must have a passport and US school records
 - Dependents age 18 or older must have a passport and:
 - A rental statement or
 - A bank statement or
 - A water, gas or electric bill showing their name and US address
